This calendar is designed to be a guide of forthcoming Asian competitions, tournaments and events that aim to involve or impact on over 100 participants. Whilst a lot of care has been taken to bring these events together into one calendar, dates may be subject to change and the Football Association bears no responsibility for any changes subsequently made to any of the dates listed. In each case you are strongly advised to contact the event organiser to check whether the event is going ahead. The Football Association is keen to develop this calendar further so that it reflects the main events during the year. If you are aware of any up and coming events that will involve 100 participants or more, please contact: jonathan.mills@thefa.com
