

Alan Higgs Centre Coventry

The Alan Higgs Centre is home to Coventry's only indoor Astro pitch, allowing your team to play whatever the weather.

League games are played every Sunday between 17:20 and 21:00, with regular cup competitions also running.

Games last for 35 minutes with a half time interval, and the top and bottom two teams of each league will be promoted and relegated respectively, allowing each team to find a league that suits their abilities.

Prices for privately hiring pitches are available on the centre's website.
